

I wonder who lives there. The Arctic & the jungle!

Understanding the World (Geography & Science Focus)

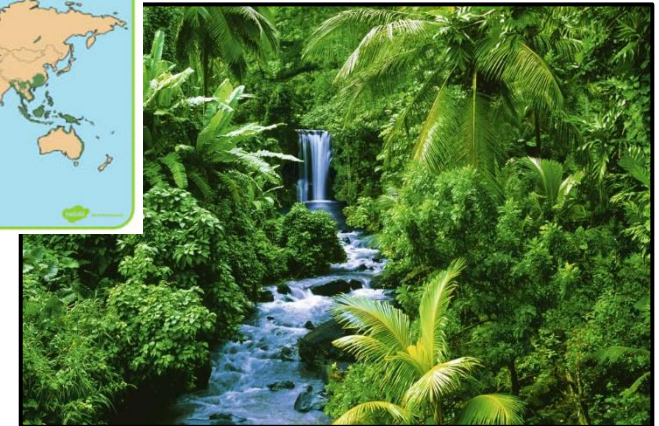

Key Vocabulary
The Arctic	The region around the North Pole.
North Pole	The point on the earth's surface that is farthest north.
Jungle	Large area of land covered with many trees and bushes.
Rainforest	A jungle where rain falls for most of the year.

The Arctic

Jungles around the world located in green.

Resources

Globe & Map of the world.

Non-fiction books of differing environments.

Photographs of differing environments.

Sticky Knowledge

The arctic has very little land, it is mostly a floating sheet of ice.

The arctic is the coldest place on earth.

The jungle is very wet and very warm.

Jungles can be found around the middle of the earth where it is very hot and wet.

Key Skills

Recognise some environments that are different to the one in which they live.